

2008 TASMANIAN SPORTING CLAYS CHAMPIONSHIPS

DERWENT VALLEY FIELD & GAME RANGE BOYER ROAD, NEW NORFOLK

Derwent Valley Field & Game, together with Tasmanian Field & Game have much pleasure in inviting you to the 2008 Tasmanian Sporting Clays Championship on 20 - 21st September.

Derwent Valley Range is located on Boyer Road on the northern side of the beautiful Derwent River. Travel 10.9km from the Bridgewater Bridge on Boyer Road towards New Norfolk. The range sign is on the left.

The Derwent Valley is genuinely fascinating. The richness and variety of the historic buildings of New Norfolk and Hamilton, the glorious river drives, the old oast houses and the gentle undulations of the countryside on either side of the Derwent River make this one of the most attractive areas in the whole of Tasmania.

Have a drink in the 1815 Bush Inn, sleep luxuriously in the convict built 1825 Woodbridge on the Derwent, dine at historic Tynwald House, wander through the old Oast House, visit the historic Willow Court which predates Port Arthur, feed the fish at the Salmon Ponds, walk along the banks of the river past the convict built remains of the first bridge over the Derwent, or inspect the beautiful stained glass windows in Tasmania's oldest church, The Anglican Church of St Matthew.

New Norfolk is known as a Mecca for antiques collectors and was recently featured on Channel Nine's 'Getaway'. Browse the many and varied antique and curios shops where you are sure to find something special.
